LT. COL. ANTHONY L. SHERMAN

Died on Aug. 27, 2003
Operation Iraqi Freedom

Lt. Col. Anthony L. Sherman, 43, was a member of the 304th Civil Affairs Brigade, an Army Reserve unit based in Philadelphia, Pa.

He died of an apparent heart attack on Aug. 27, 2003 while deployed to Kuwait in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

The 304th CA Bde. was mobilized to support Operation Iraqi Freedom in February 2003 and deployed to Kuwait in late March. Sherman served as the plans officer in the brigade's operations section.

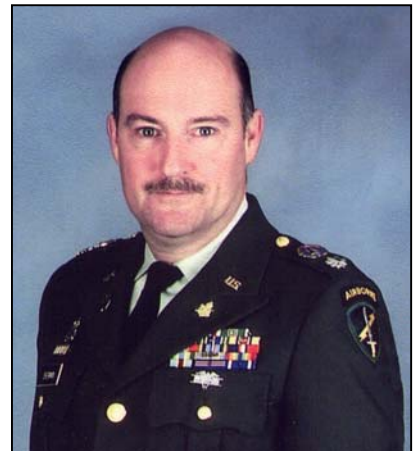

His civilian education includes three Master's degrees in psychology, education and international peace from Temple University, La Salle University and Arcadia University, respectively.

Sherman was commissioned into the Army Reserve in May 1982. He received his commission through the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps. Before serving as a civil affairs officer, Sherman was a medical services officer.

His awards include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Army Reserve Components Achievement Medal and the Army Achievement Medal.

While a member of the 304th CA Bde., Sherman deployed twice to Bosnia to serve with the NATO Stabilization Force working to rehabilitate the region.

A resident of Pottstown, Pa., he is survived by his wife, Lisa, and his son, Grant.
